Evening Chat

Some Dainty New Tablecloths.
Some of the prettiest table cloths have made an appearance in the city. They have come to take the place of the expensive linen which many feel they cannot afford on account of the extra expense and general wear and tear which result from careless laundering. Linens began to go up in price about the time the war started and have not dropped yet. The new table cloths are made of white cotton but they are stamped with patterns of different designs—some with trailing vines and graceful leaves, some with butterflies or bluebirds or apple blossoms, some with small chrysanthemums, others with dainty flowers of all sorts, all stamped in pretty blue color. Small lunch napkins come to match them and the sets are so very popular that the supply does not meet the demand. Fairmont stores do not keep them as yet and most of them come from out of town. Many know the Japanese towel which is used for window draperies in bedrooms or cozy living rooms. The new table cloths are made of the same material with the same blue coloring in the design.

One Lovely Little Chicken.

Our gentleman on High street who is very fond of chickens and who was discovered recently holding a hen on her nest to prevent a premature departure for new world's to conquer, is the proud possessor of one very fine looking baby chick a beautiful yellow in color. The chick was hatched yesterday morning and was the only one out of the twelve to materialize. It has been placed in a basket in the kitchen and today has discovered that there are many interesting corners worth investigating in the room which contains a stove. The small fluffy creature has learned already that folks in that house are especially fond of pets. You should really see the big dog who lives here also. He was about to gobble up the poor chicken in one bite when he was informed seriously and firmly that no plans of that nature would be tolerated. He sits and eyes every move the scrawny thing makes. He growls jealously up the scale and down again but does nothing to the mite now but poke it about with his nose. He tips the chick over headfirst quite easily with a "cheap cheap, cheap" you never heard.

My Best Friend.

Prominent physicians claim people fall in life because of "nerve hunger" that it is the active bright-eyed, strong nerved man of woman who is "there" at work or play.
Strong, well nourished nerves is the great secret of success, health and happiness.
Men and women try to live regardless of health, strength, ambition, energy and hope, they exceed the speed limits, wasting nerve strength and energy and fail to reserve force, afterwards they only exist, life has no joys.
Without energy, ambition, strong nerves, and a great deal of one cannot hope to enjoy the fullest measure of success and happiness.

A noted specialist says, "Phosphated Iron builds strength to the blood, nerves and brain, that it is a perfect combination of vital elements of great tonic qualities when taken by 'Nerve-rich humans', that it will increase body and nerve energy, restore ambition and staying powers."
The man says: "If you are the victim of nervousness, worry, excess of mental and physical force, have the blues, and the measures of life are no longer enjoyable, that you need Phosphated Iron to live, build you up and put you on your feet again."
Special Notice—To insure physicians and their patients getting the genuine Phosphated Iron we put up in capsules only, so do not allow dealers to substitute any pills or tablets.

a celebrated man once said—the more people I know, the better I love my dog. She's a wonderful example of genuine sweetness and goodness and when I think that many human beings with some sense, a few brains and fair opportunity, fail to get through life without committing numerous sins of omission and commission, I love my dog still more. For my dog has very few brains but she is as faithful as any human ever was—is thoroughly honest in actions and thoughts, does not chatter, in any way gives me a comfortable sense of well being, because she has a contented satisfied disposition, is very appreciative of every favor, does not ask for anything; in fact, is just one very good, lovable faithful friend whom I should hate to lose. Every day. She waits and watches for me to come home—waits close to the door, her small nose lying stretched on her front paws her ears and eyes waiting to catch the faintest sound. When I come inside she acts very much like an animated rubber ball. Her love for me inside that precious little body fairly bounces to the sky and back again. She asks me for nothing although often she has been neglected and is hungry. There is something very genuinely good about the warmth of her soft, fur coat against my cheek. She is only a little dog, but she has her own unalterable place in my heart.

A GENEROUS ATTITUDE.

"Can you afford to keep a dog?"
"Dat ain' worryin' me," replied Mr. Erastus Pinkley. "But de way my luck's ben runnin', if I was a dog I'd git out an' hunt up somebody else to belong to."—Washington Star.

DOCTOR COULD NOT HELP HER

But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her from a Serious Operation.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I suffered something dreadful from a displacement and two very bad attacks of inflammation. My doctor said he could do nothing more for me and I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash have entirely cured me of my troubles and I am now in good health. I am willing you should use my testimonial and hope to benefit other suffering women by doing so."—Mrs. F. PLATT, Woodbine, Brooklyn, N. Y.
Operations upon women in our hospitals are constantly on the increase, but before submitting to an operation for ailments peculiar to their sex every woman owes it to herself to give that famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. If complications exist write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice.

To the Users of Jiffy-Jell

We Pay 10c Each

Real-Fruit Desserts
12½c Per Dinner

Note that Jiffy-Jell brings you a real-fruit dessert. All the fruit flavors are fruit-juice essences condensed. They come sealed in glass—a bottle in each package—so they keep their fruit-time freshness.

Mark how Jiffy-Jell differs from old-style gelatin desserts. Here you have true-fruit dainties, rich in condensed fruit juices. You get all the delights, all the healthfulness of fruit.

You simply add boiling water—no sugar, no acidity, no color. Then add the fruit-juice flavor from the vial. One package of Jiffy-Jell serves six people in mold form, or twelve if you whip the jell—all for 12½ cents.

For Salads use lime-fruit Jiffy-Jell. It makes a tart, green salad jell. Serve with the salad or mix the salad in before cooling.

For Meat Loaf mix meat scraps into Lime Jiffy-Jell.

For Garnish on cold meats or roast lamb, use Mint Jiffy-Jell.

For Desserts try Loganberry and Pineapple—two of our finest flavors.

This Week Only

Each Jiffy-Jell package has a 10c trademark in a circle on the front. We will pay you 10 cents in aluminum mold values for each circle you send us this week.

Note our mold offers at the side. Some of these molds are new. Pick out the mold or the molds you want, and send us these 10c trademarks, counting as 10c each, to cover the value as stated. Send no money. We pay postage on the molds.

Note that Jiffy-Jell costs you 12½ cents per package. And the trademark alone is worth 10 cents on these molds, if sent this week.

Send as many trademarks as you wish this week. Or, if you prefer, send grocer's sales slip, showing amount of purchase.

This offer is made to start new users—to show them what Jiffy-Jell means to them. But present users are welcome to accept it. Get Jiffy-Jell now while this offer is open. Get what you need for some weeks. This is the time when fruity desserts are most needed.
